

Under Pressure: Working with the form and setting of smaller settlements

Tuesday 6th November 2018, Kellogg College, Oxford

Programme

- 9.30am Tea and coffee on arrival
- 9.4am Welcome, Louise Thomas, HTVF Director
- 10am The historical significance of settlement forms, functions and settings, Dr Geoffrey Tyack, Kellogg College, Oxford University
- 10.30am Planning for growth: small settlements today, the HELAA process and the market, Louise Thomas
- 11am Q&A followed by tea and coffee
- 11.30am Shaping towns - strategic urban design in the local plan process, Roger Evans, studio REAL
- 12pm Using an historical evidence base for planning policy and development management, Charles Wagner, Associate, The Built Heritage Consultancy
- 12.30pm Q&A
- 1pm Lunch
- 1.45pm Introduction to Workshop
- 3.15pm Tea and coffee
- 3.30pm Workshop feedback
- 4pm Dorchester on Thames Neighbourhood Plan: a case study, Professor Malcolm Airs, Kellogg College, Oxford University
- 5pm Close