

Protecting our Heritage Assets: Community involvement in recording and regenerating local heritage

Tuesday 19th March 2019, Rewley House, 1 Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JA

- 9.30am Tea and coffee on arrival
- 9.45am Welcome, Louise Thomas, HTVF Director
- 10am Networked Heritage, Oluwaseun Soyemi, National Heritage Lottery Fund
- 10.30am Undertaking a Conservation Area Appraisal, Susy Shearer, local historian/community engagement specialist, Windsor Neighbourhood Plan Forum
- 11am Q&A followed by tea and coffee
- 11.30am Telling your place's story for the community and visitors, Rafi Ilivitzky, TrailTale
- 12pm How local authorities can use volunteers, Richard Tuffrey, Special Advisor, Buxton Crescent Heritage Trust & formerly Conservation Officer, High Peak Borough Council
- 12.30 Q&A
- 1pm Lunch
- 2pm Using toolkits to support greater involvement, Louise Thomas, HTVF
- 2.30pm Introduction to workshop: Getting help on a community-led heritage project,
Benjamin Parker, Heritage Trust Network
- 3.45pm Tea and coffee
- 4.15pm Peckham Coal Line – What community-led visions can do, Colin Sterling, Peckham Coal Line Steering Group
- 4.45pm Discussion
- 5pm Close

Kindly sponsored by

Committed to Promote the Heritage of our Small Towns and Villages.